such appointments shall be made by the Govt.

2) The municipal council in their resolution of 9.1.23 requests that the pecuniary jurisdiction of the village court be established in that municipality be Rs 50/- instead of Rs 20/- as per Sec 11 of the Regn. This point has not been touched upon by the Revenue in his recommendation, probably because that case up to Rs 200/- the value may be heard by such courts with the written consent of both parties under sec 12 of the Regn.

(3) Draft notification sanctioning the Court Limits should be published.

(4) Sanction of Govt to the appointment of Mr C. Ramachandradas or Mr Adone Khedkar is necessary as the Govt appoints the members under the Regulation.

(5) The raising of the pecuniary jurisdiction of the court to Rs 50 is not possible unless the Regn is amended Warrant Govt Gr.

(6) This is only with the consent of the parties. What the municipal Council requires is that the pecuniary jurisdiction should be increased to Rs 50 under Section 11.
